Dear Prospective Volunteer,

Next May Bethpage State Park will host the 2019 PGA on The Black Course. Bethpage is proud and excited to host Major Golf Championships at “The People’s Country Club” once again. The Black Course has been the privileged host of the 2002 and 2009 United States Open Championships and the 2012 and 2016 The Barclays PGA Tour tournaments. A host of turf professionals volunteered for these events making them a great success. We have been fortunate in receiving the resounding support of the golf community and we are once again seeking your assistance. The tournament is scheduled from May 13-19, 2019. While that seems a long way out we must commence our planning to ensure a successful volunteer program and tournament. Volunteer housing will be available on a limited basis. Please either mail or email the enclosed application to my attention to confirm your interest in volunteering at Bethpage for the tournament.

We are planning on holding a mandatory staff meeting the afternoon of Sunday, May 12th to organize and prepare assignments for the upcoming championship week. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

The golf maintenance staff and I look forward to working with you to prepare the Black Course to challenge the best players in the world.

Sincerely,

A. Wilson
